Beach tilling this week

FROM CEPD:

Beach tilling is set to begin on Captiva Island on Monday, April 3. Residents and visitors should expect heavy equipment on the beaches for the week and are advised to keep their distance. This practice is to ensure a suitable environment for the upcoming turtle nesting season. Questions? Call CEPD at 472-2472.

Hurricane Ian workshop April 10

SAVE THE DATE! The Captiva Community Panel will host a Hurricane Ian workshop on Monday, April 10, beginning at 7 p.m. at the Captiva Civic Center, 11550 Chapin Lane, Captiva. The meeting focus will be on Ian details and timeline, looking at what worked and what needs to be done before the next storm. More details on speakers will follow later this week, and you can sign up to attend at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/hurricane-ian-workshop-tickets-606751659547>. Questions? Email captivacommunitypanel@gmail.com.

Debris removal ends on Captiva

Effective March 29, federal and state reimbursement for debris removal in unincorporated Lee County ceased. For Captiva, that means an end to roadside debris removal by Crowder Gulf and other contractors. Property owners will need to make other arrangements to have any remaining storm debris removed, and everyone is reminded not to stack debris in the road right-of-way.
