Meeting reminders

Proposed changes to island building heights and density (among other issues) will be the focus of two meetings this week.

The first will be a Captiva Civic Association informational meeting set for tonight beginning at 6 p.m. (on Zoom, details below), where representatives from island organizations will review the proposed changes and their potential impact on the island, with Q&A to follow.

Then, the Captiva Community Panel will hold a Zoom meeting tomorrow (Tuesday, June 13) beginning at 9 a.m., where a discussion of the county proposals and possible responses will be discussed. Items and updates regularly covered at these monthly meetings will also be on the agenda.
